

2. Last week, we studied the three aspects of our gospel witness (living, sharing, and going). In our study this week, we see these three on display again. Consider how each of these is demonstrated in Acts 2:1-41 and in our own lives as you work through the following questions.
 - a. Living – The coming of the Holy Spirit and the giving of the gift of tongues caught the attention of lots of people at Pentecost and created an audience prepared to hear Peter’s sermon. How can the power of the Holy Spirit in your life and the life of our church create opportunities like this for us to share/proclaim the gospel?
 - b. Sharing – When the time was right, the Holy Spirit empowered Peter to stand up and share/proclaim the truth of the gospel to those who were present at Pentecost. How can the power of the Holy Spirit enable us to share/proclaim the gospel to those he brings into our lives?
 - c. Going – The witness of the believers at Pentecost and Peter’s message had an impact upon people from all over the world. How can the power of the Holy Spirit enable us to reach those nearby and those far off with the gospel?
3. Last week, we were asked to share the names of several family members, friends, or acquaintances who need Christ. How can you begin to be a witness to them more intentionally this week, as you live, share, and go in the power of the Holy Spirit?
