Matthew 25:36-40

“Those who are happiest are those who do the most for others.”

–Booker T. Washington

Key Principle: Always be on the lookout for any opportunities to serve those who need help.

We love Jesus by obeying His commands to love people.

LIFT Question: How can you serve others like you would serve Jesus?

- b. How are the people you see every day also poor and in need of service?

Journey Group Questions

1. What mission trips have you gone on?
 - a. What did you do?
 - b. How did those experiences affect you?
 - c. What did you learn from them?
2. When Jesus talks about the poor, who do you think He's talking about?
 - a. Can someone be poor in a way that isn't just economic?
3. What are some practical ways you could serve or be a blessing to those around you this week?
4. Would it look different if you were serving Jesus instead of someone else? How & Why?
