Discussion Questions

1. Read Hebrews 10:19-31. Does the writer use positive reinforcement or negative consequences to motivate the readers to deepen their commitment of faith? Which type of motivation gets a better response out of you, positive or negative?
2. What might be the reason(s) why the author uses this/these styles of motivation for his audience?
3. How can we draw near to God? When was the last time that you sensed you were drawing near to God?
4. What are some circumstance which might shake your faith and cause doubt to rise in your mind? What might lead to you to living with something other than God's glory becoming your greatest desire?
5. How can you encourage others in their walk with Jesus?
6. What areas do you need encouragement in? Who can you ask to encourage you in that area of life?
