Journey Group Questions

1. Read Hebrews 12:3-11. When have you experienced discipline for doing the wrong thing? Did this help you to correct the wrong behavior/attitude or did you continue?

2. What motivates a parent to discipline their child? What does God say is His reason for disciplining us? (Hebrews 12:10)

3. What is the goal of discipline? (Hebrews 12:11)

4. Is every good thing you experience caused by something good that you did? Is every hard thing caused by something sinful that you did? Read John 9:1-12. Was this man made blind because someone had sinned? Was he healed because he had done something to earn it?

5. How does the story from John 9:1-12 refute ideas of philosophies like Karma?

6. When was the last time you asked God to help you to become more disciplined? When you sense that God may be using circumstances to discipline you, how can you examine your heart for any sin and repent from sin in your life?
